

IS³, a business unit of Digital Industries (Pty) Ltd, POPIA Terms and Conditions

1. Intended use of data:

- (a) For all marketing purposes - campaigns, newsletters, news alerts, events and all other marketing related communication.
- (b) All data both mandatory and optional (if completed) will be captured.

2. Information we collect:

The type of information collected may differ per marketing initiative. The standard personal information collected will always be Name, Surname, Company Name, Contact Number & E-mail address.

3. Withdrawal of consent:

Should you no longer wish to receive communication from IS³, a business unit of Digital Industries (Pty) Ltd, click on the unsubscribe button on the e-mail and complete the process or e-mail us at marketing@is3.co.za.

4. Editing of data:

It is the data subject obligation to e-mail marketing@is3.co.za to make any amendments to personal data stored by the company upon change.

5. Information stored:

E-mail marketing@is3co.za to find out which of your personal data is stored.

6. Data sharing:

- (a) From time to time your information will be transferred and processed by the Company and its affiliates for business related purposes
- (b) Your personal data may be shared from time to time with 3rd parties both within and across South African borders but will remain for the intended purpose.
- (c) Your data will be transferred to the company's global customer database system.

7. Storage of data:

- (a) Once received, personal data will be retained and stored in various company systems and formats depending on the intended use of information.
- (b) In some instances' your data maybe, stored across borders/internationally due to our service provider's being internationally located.
- (c) Your data will be transferred to the company's global customer database system who will retain the data depending on the intended use of information transferred.
- (d) Your personal data may be shared and stored from time to time with 3rd parties both within and across South African borders but will remain for the intended purpose.

8. Accuracy of information:

The accuracy of information captured is reliant on the data subject unless data is being transferred by the company, which then becomes the data capturer's responsibility to ensure accuracy.